"DAY FOR DAVID" HOSTED BY ARCADIA UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ON WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8TH @ 6 PM

Please Join with the Arcadia University Women's Basketball Team to Raise Money for St. Baldrick's Pediatric Cancer Foundation in Honor of a Very Brave 10 Year Old boy, David Heard, who lost his battle with Neuroblastoma on February 10th, 2011.

David's battle against cancer began in 2008, when he was diagnosed with stage IV Neuroblastoma, a rare and often deadly cancer of the nervous system that strikes 750 kids a year. He fought the disease hard, undergoing intense treatments at five different hospitals, including local Philadelphia Hospitals: St. Christopher's for Children, Hahneman University, and Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

But after six months of remission, David relapsed in July of 2010.

David lived everyday full of zest and sparkle, he left behind a legacy on this world to believe and never give up on your hopes & dreams. Too many children and families hear the dreaded words "You have cancer" and in a instance their lives change forever. Together we can raise funds and help St. Baldrick's Foundation find a cure! Thank you for your support!
